

DUA OF THE NOON (ZOHR)

It is recommended to perform the Noon Prayer at the beginning of its time. However, the first thing to do when it is midday (zohr) is to say the following doxology (zikr):

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَمْ يَتَّخِذْ
صَاحِبَةً وَلَا وَلَدًا وَلَا لَكَدًّا وَ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ شَرِيكٌ فِي الْمُلْكِ وَ لَمْ
يَكُنْ لَهُ وِليٌّ مِّنَ الدُّلِّ وَ كِبْرَةٌ تَكْبِيرًا -

It is reported that Imam al-Baqir (a.s.) instructed Muhammad ibn Muslim to keep on saying this doxology (zikr) as same as he keeps his eyes from harm.

If you have not yet done the ritual ablution, you may hurry up and observe all the aforementioned etiquettes.